TEUR BASEBALL
SOCIATION FORMED

Feb. 20.—The National Baseball association was organized today by representatives of leagues in various cities, with a view to the organization of a league of cities under one body similar to that in professional cities.

The cities will be admitted soon and will be divided into four classes, each section headed by a vice president to be elected in that section.

Members of each league will play seasonal championships, and the league will play for leadership.

Playing cities hold charter membership in the association. Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Buffalo, St. Louis, Columbus, Washington, St. Paul, Louisville, Baltimore, Chicago.

E. Smith, president of the Calculator Baseball league, presided at the meeting.

It is expected that the first year will be chosen and a constitution and by-laws will be adopted.

CE TO TESTIFY AGAINST SUSPECT

Conversation Between Petras and Wife on Night of Murder of Miss Hollander.

Feb. 20.—Police testimony will be used in an effort to establish the charge that Anthony Petras killed his former sweetheart, Miss Hollander, was revealed today.

Grass, night captain of police, said Petras, took Petras to a home within an hour after the murder of Miss Hollander was found in a cemetery.

It is the matter, Tony? Grass asked Mrs. Petras, according to the matter? Has she been killed or something? was the next question, according to the police.

Conversation today was taken to both Petras and his wife, Miss Hollander's death, all of which he had not told Petras was being arrested.

He was made to take Petras to the police believe Miss Hollander was killed.

OPAL MINISTER WILL BE UNFROCKED

Feb. 20.—The Rev. George Opal, who three weeks ago mysteriously disappeared from Denver and has since been heard from, will be unfrocked last night by Bishop Olmstead of the Episcopal diocese of Colorado.

Opal came to Denver several days ago from Tonopah, Nev.
